COMMUNITY SINGING

1: BLESS EM ALL

They say that there's a troopship just leaving Bombay, bound for old Blighty's Shore.
Heavily laden with time expired men, bound for the land they adore.
There's many an airman just finishing his time, there's many an Erk signing on.
You'll get no promotion this side of the ocean, so cheer up my lads bless 'em all.
Bless 'em all; bless 'em all; the long and the short and the tall.
Bless all the Sergeants and W. O. 1's bless all the corporals and their blinking sons.
For we're saying "Goodbye" to them all as back to their billets they crawl.
You'll get no promotion this side of the ocean, so cheer up my lads, bless 'em all.

2: LILY MARLENE

Underneath the lantern by the Barrack gate
Darling I remember the way you used to wait
Twas there that you whispered tenderly
That you loved me, you'd always be,
My Lily of the lamplight, my own Lily Marlene
Orders came for sailing, Somewhere over there,
All confined to barracks, was more than I could bear,
I knew that you were waiting in street,
I heard your feet, but could not meet,
My Lily of the lamplight, my own Lily Marlene.

3: KISS ME GOODNIGHT SERGEANT MAJOR

Kiss me goodnight, Sergeant Major, tuck me in my little wooden bed.
We all love you Sergeant-Major, especially when you show a bit of leg.
Don't forget to wake me in the morning, bring me a nice cup o
Kiss me goodnight
Sergeant-Major; Sergeant-Major be a mother to me.

4: THERE'LL ALWAYS BE AN ENGLAND

There'll always be an England while there's a country lane.
Wherever there's a cottage small, small, beside a field of grain.
There'll always be an England, while there's a busy street.
Wherever there's a turning wheel, a million marching feet.
Red, white, and blue. What does it mean to you?
Surely you're proud, shout it out loud, Britons awake.
There are the chains nothing can break.
There'll always be an England and England shall be free.
If England means as much to you as England means to me.

5: WHITE CLIFFS OF DOVER

There'll be bluebirds over the white cliffs of Dover, Tomorrow just you wait and see.
There'll be love and laughter and peace ever after, Tomorrow when the world is free.

The shepherd will tend his sheep. The valley will bloom again.

And Jimmy will go to sleep in his own little room again.

There'll be bluebirds over the white cliffs of Dover, just you wait and see.

6: WE'LL MEET AGAIN

We'll meet again, don't know where, don't know when

But I know we'll meet again some sunny day

Keep smiling through just like you always do

'Til the blue skies drive the dark clouds far away

So will you, please, say hello to the folks that I know, tell them I won't be long

They'll be happy to know that as you saw me go I was singing this song

We'll meet again, don't know where, don't know when

But I know we'll meet again some sunny day

7: LAND OF HOPE AND GLORY

Land of Hope and Glory, Mother of the Free,

How shall we extol thee, who are born of thee?

Wider still and wider shall thy bounds be set;

God, who made thee mighty, make thee mightier yet,

God, who made thee mighty, make thee mightier yet!

Land of Hope and Glory, Mother of the Free,

How shall we extol thee, who are born of thee?

Wider still and wider shall thy bounds be set;

God, who made thee mighty, make thee mightier yet,

God, who made thee mighty, make thee mightier yet!

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

O GOD OUR HELP IN AGES PAST (Tune: "St. Anne")

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 O God our Help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our Eternal home. | 2 Beneath the shadow of thy throne,
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine arm,
And our defence is sure. |
| 3 Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same. | 4 A thousand ages in thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun. |
| 5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They're forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day. | 6 O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home. |

Padre: -- Prayers

Padre: -- Friends, we meet in this act of worship to commemorate before God, the courage and devotion of our comrades on the battlefields, on the high seas, in the air and in the prison camps. We remember those who have made the supreme sacrifice in wars and conflicts, which have affected the life of our nation and of the world, so that we and our children might live in freedom. We remember also, all those for whom the end of war was not the end of suffering.

Padre: -- Let us now make confession of our own sins and shortcomings, remembering that if we say we have no sin, we are deceitful, and the truth is not in us.

All: -- O God our Father, we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed. We have not loved you with all our hearts. We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. Have mercy upon us we beseech you. Cleanse us from our sins and help us to overcome our faults. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Padre: -- May the Lord Almighty have mercy upon us, forgive us our sins and bring us to life everlasting through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Padre: -- Will offer prayers for...

The King and his ministers and the nation
the establishment of peace
those who have died in action and captivity
those in trouble, need or distress

All: -- The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth,
As it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them
that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

HYMN: --

FOR THE HEALING OF THE NATIONS (Tune: "Alleluia Dulce Carmen")

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 For the healing of the nations,
Lord we pray with one accord:
For a just and equal sharing.
Of the things that earth affords.
To a life of love in action
Help us rise and pledge our word. | 2 Lead us, Father, into freedom,
From despair your world release,
That, redeemed from war and hatred,
Men may come and go in peace.
Show us how through care and goodness
Fear will die and hope increase. |
| 3 All that kills abundant living,
Let it from the earth be banned.
Pride of status, race or schooling,
Dogmas keeping man from man.
In our common quest for justice
May we hallow life's brief span. | 4 You, creator-God, have written.
Your great name on all mankind.
For our growing in your likeness
Bring the life of Christ to mind.
That by our response and service
Earth its destiny may find. |

PADRE

WE SHALL REMEMBER

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 We shall remember e'er this closing day,
Absent Companions near or far away.
Deep in their toiling, or in sickness lain,
Our thoughts may share their load or ease their pain. | 2 Deep in the Higher Fellowship's great fold,
They grow not weary, nor do they grow old.
Deep in our hearts their memories do we store,
We shall remember them for evermore. |

THE EVENING HYMN: --

THE DAY THOU GAVEST LORD IS ENDED (Tune: "St. Clement")

The day thou gavest Lord is ended
The darkness falls at thy behest
To thee our morning hymns ascended
Thy praise shall sanctify our rest

SUNSET: Lowering of the Service Flags, & assembly of the Standards

- 2 We thank Thee that Thy church unsleeping
While earth rolls onward into light
Through all the world her watch is keeping
And rests not now by day or night.
- 3 As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day
The voice of prayer is never silent
Nor dies the strain of praise away.
- 4 The sun that bids us rest is waking
Our brethren 'neath the western sky
And hour by hour fresh lips are making
Thy wondrous doings heard on high.
- 5 So be it, Lord! Thy throne shall never
Like earth's proud empires, pass away
Thy kingdom stands, and grows for ever
Till all Thy creatures own Thy sway.

THE LAST IN THE BOOK

Once in the dear, dead days, beyond recall,
When on the world the mists began to fall,
Out of the dreams that rose in happy throng
Long to our hearts love sang an old sweet song;
And in the dusk, where feel the firelight gleam,
Softly it wove itself into our dream,

Chorus *Just a song at twilight, when the lights are low,
And the flickering shadows softly come and go,
Though the heart be weary, sad the day and long
Still to us at twilight comes Love's old song.*

Even today we hear love's song of yore,
Deep in our hearts it dwells for evermore;
Footsteps may falter, weary grow the way,
Still we can hear it at the close of day;
So to the end, when life's dim shadows fall,
Love will be found the sweetest song of all.

Repeat Chorus

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

God save our gracious King!
Long live our noble King!
God save the King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.
