

Kick off 2025 with Quality Conversations!

Join us for our brand new Spotlight Session- Clear Conversations.

Did you know that 6 out of 10 people in Derbyshire will struggle to understand basic health information?

In this interactive online session, we will dive into the importance of verbal health literacy. You will get chance to learn and practice how to communicate in a health literacy friendly way, ask the right questions, and support people to manage their health and wellbeing.

Book your place for our 27th January session here.

We also have lots of exciting sessions coming up for you in January. Find out more and book your place on our Quality Conversations website.
